

community state bank

Redefining Simple.

www.bankcsb.com • (515) 331-3100

Release Date: IMMEDIATE
May 7, 2009

Contact: Jennifer McClintock
(515) 252-1275
jmcclintock@bankcsb.com

COMMUNITY STATE BANK SUPPORTS "CHANGE FOR A CHANGE"

ANKENY— Mark Degner, President/CEO of Community State Bank presents Miya Pine with a check for $500 in support of her CHANGE FOR A CHANGE project to benefit Hope Ministries' Family Center.

Five year-old Miya, from Ankeny, set out to collect loose change with an original goal of purchasing 500 diapers for the young children residing at the Family Center. Miya began collecting change at various locations around the metro and even encouraged her classmates to get involved. The project gained momentum over the past two months and resulted in 11,800 diapers – an estimated six month supply.

"Community State Bank is really happy to help a young citizen learn the art of giving. Miya's efforts will impact the lives of dozens of homeless families that need help. Her gift will not only help these families through difficult times, but encourage people of all ages to do what they can to help those in need," says Mark Degner.

Iowa-owned Community State Bank is a full-service financial institution, offering banking, mortgage, insurance and financial solutions at ten convenient metro locations. To find out how Community State Bank is Redefining Simple™, visit www.bankCSB.com.

* * *

Mark Degner, President and CEO of Community State Bank, presents 5 year old Miya Pine with a check for $500, which will help her purchase an additional 2,000 diapers for the children at the Hope Family Center.

Mark Degner, President and CEO of Community State Bank helps Miya Pine count the money she raised for the Hope Family Center. The proceeds go to help purchase diapers for the children at the Center.